

Privacy Notice

Website and Social Media

This privacy notice is designed to help you understand how and why your information is processed when you submit a request via our website or contact us through Social Media.

We do publish incident information on our website and Social Media sites, however, we do not disclose any personal information.

Why do you need to process my information?

If you choose to contact us by the use of a website form or through Social Media your information is then used to either meet a regulatory requirement or for legitimate purposes of managing and dealing with your request.

Website Forms and Use

When you submit a form to us we request certain information to enable us to deal with your request and provide a response where necessary. The majority of the information we ask for on a form is voluntary, information which is compulsory is clearly marked with an asterisks* and is required for us to deliver the required service. If you do not provide the information we may not be able to deal with your enquiry or provide you with a response.

The table below describes why your information is collected and used for each website form.

If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by our Chief Fire Officer/Chief Executive. Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until our internal review process has been completed.

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) is the UK's independent body set up to uphold information rights. You have a right to lodge complaints with them.
